

SUMMER FIELDS SCHOOL
ASSIGNMENT FOR FINAL EXAMINATION
CLASS – IV
SUBJECT – SCIENCE

DATE:

Q1 Match the following:

- | | |
|--------------|---------------------------------|
| a. Bauxite | i. Fossil fuel |
| b. Mica | ii. Metallic mineral |
| c. Petroleum | iii. A rock containing minerals |
| d. Wheat | iv. Aluminium |
| e. Gold | v. Finished product |
| f. Ore | vi. Non- metallic mineral |
| g. Wool | vii. Food crop |
| h. Shawl | viii Raw material |

Q2 Name the states for the following:

- a) A state where iron ore is found: _____
- b) The largest producer of Jute: _____
- c) A state to the south of India where coffee is produced: _____
- d) A woollen industry in North: _____
- e) A textile industry located in west: _____
- f) A ship building industry in west: _____
- g) Iron and steel industry : _____
- h) An oil refinery on the east coast: _____
- i) A state where coal mines are located: _____

Q3 Correct the following statements:

- a) Wood is used to make rubber.

- b) Copper is used to make steel.

- c) India's constitution came into existence on 15th August 1950.

Q4 Fill in the blanks:

- a) According to the principle of _____, the people are free to follow the religion or belief of their own choice.
- b) In a democratic government, the _____ can elect their own leaders.
- c) _____ means all people are equal no matter what religion they follow and whether they are rich or poor.
- d) _____ and _____ are the two famous old towns of Indus valley civilization.
- e) A place where people make things with machines is known as _____.
- f) Oilfields is an area with many _____.

- g) _____ is an alternative source of energy.
- h) Raising cattle for milk or milk products is known as _____.

Q5 Write the definitions of the following terms:

Minerals, Seals, Mine, Agriculture, Animal Husbandry, Livestock rearing, Dairy farming, Civilization, Dockyard, Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties, Directive Principles

Q6 Differentiate between:

- a) Rabi crops and kharif crops
- b) Deep mining and strip mining

Q7 Answer the following questions:

- a) Explain any two Fundamental rights.
- b) How did the life of human beings change when they learnt to grow crops?
- c) What are cash crops? Give examples also.
- d) Why is the conservation of minerals important?
- e) Write any Directive principles.
- f) Where is Petroleum found?
- g) How is coal useful?
- h) Write a brief note on small scale industries.