

ASSIGNMENT FOR FINAL EXAMINATION

CLASS – V

SUBJECT – ENGLISH

DATE:

GRAMMAR

Q1 Underline the verb and then state whether it is Transitive (T) or Intransitive (I):

- a) The sun shines brightly.
- b) The boy cut his hand.
- c) The clock stopped this morning.
- d) I looked down from my window.
- e) The policeman blew his whistle.
- f) He took shelter under a tree.
- g) The old beggar stood at the gate.
- h) The clock ticks all day long.

Q2 Change the following into indirect speech:

- a) Rama said, “I am very busy.”

- b) “I know her address,” said Gopi.

- c) The teacher said, “The earth goes round the sun.”

- d) He said, “I have passed the examination.”

- e) “German is easy to learn,” she said.

- f) Harry said, “We will buy gifts for her tomorrow.”

- g) My sister said, “I have stitched a dress for you.”

Q3 Punctuate the following conversation:

one day akbar the mughal emperor said to birbal how much difference is there between what is true and what is false birbal replied at once just a width of four fingers

Q3 Punctuate the following sentences:

- a) the peacock is a beautiful bird
- b) the teacher said don't make a noise
- c) maria go and open the door
- d) how innocent the child is
- e) are you ready for the result

Creative writing

Write a letter to the Principal of your school to give you permission to celebrate 'Grand Parents Day' in the school for junior classes. You are the headboy/ headgirl of the school of the primary wing.