From the Chairperson..

Dr. Ameeta Mulla Wattal

Chairperson and Executive Director
Education, Innovations and Training
DLF Foundation Schools and Scholarship Programme

The festive season brings in celebrations. The illumination, merry-making and excitement will bring us joy. It is time for a reunion of families and friends.

As we light up our lives, let us also kindle the flame of generosity. Let our hearts overflow with warmth and concern for those less fortunate and reflect on our responsibilities towards others and our environment. In the spirit of Diwali, which symbolizes the triumph of light over darkness, let us strive to conquer the negative forces within us and spirit of sharing and caring. Education plays a significant role in our celebrations. It enlightens and empowers our children, guiding them to become conscientious and responsible citizens. As we celebrate this joyous time, let us also commit to educating our minds and heart, ensuring that the light of knowledge continues to guide the paths of our children.

Keep the Faith

From the Principal...

Dr. Urmimala Sudhakar
Principal

An education system should develop the imagination of the child as the imagination is where new ideas are created and progress becomes possible. Imagination leads to innovation. Hence at Summer Fields, our students are allowed to soar on the wings of their imagination while remaining rooted to their traditional values.

We acknowledge that the children of today are the leaders of tomorrow. We aim to transform our students into innovative leaders who can tackle any challenging environmental, social, and economic issue with their critical thinking and creative problem-solving abilities. We equip our students with knowledge, values, and skills and prepare them to carve a path forward in their own lives and career.

The school motto 'Service Before Self' is a vivid reflection of our vision and manifests itself in all activities of the school. Students' inquisitive nature is kindled, and their energy is channeled to pursue systematic learning. At every stage, it is ensured that their interest level is sustained, and ample scope is provided for them to exhibit their innate talents. This not only helps the students in their overall development but also helps teachers give individual attention to their students and groom them to their best potential.

I am grateful to our respected Chairperson for being our pillar of strength and a leader who goes the way to show the way. I am thankful to our extremely supportive parents' community who have stood by the school at all times. The dedicated faculty make the bedrock of the school rock solid and contribute to the rich legacy of the school.

The thirteenth edition of 'Summerline' is in your hands to read, cherish, and applaud the triumphs of the school, the students, and all staff members.

Warm regards,

From the Headmistress...

opportunities to lead, collaborate, and excel. Their energy and curiosity are the driving forces behind our vibrant school culture. We are dedicated to nurturing these qualities, ensuring that each student feels valued and empowered to achieve their best.

Reflecting on our accomplishments so far, it is clear that we are on a path of continuous improvement and success. We have laid a strong foundation, one that will support our aspirations and goals for the future. The insights and learnings from our early endeavours have provided us with a direction and renewed motivation.
